Briefs.

—The public schools of this city will open next Monday, September 3d.

—A team belonging to Russell Cheesey, of Emerald Grove, took a harmless run down Court and Park streets this morning, being stopped near the jail.

—Mr. John W. Tipney has a new concrete sidewalk in front of his residence, on Cornelia street, second ward and he is well pleased with it.

—Mr. Ed. Keating is putting the finishing touches on two new houses on Mineral Point avenue, first ward, and has the frame of the third one up.

—Another immense crowd visited the court house park on Saturday evening, and were highly pleased with the music rendered by the Bower City band.

—Mr. George H. Osgood, of this city, has sold his farm in the town of Harmony, to E. G. Hoppel. The sale was made through the agency of Campbell & Stevens.

—Marshal Hogan arrested two unruly drunks yesterday—they were fresh from the harvest fields, and were making a little too much noise for the peace of the city.

—The teachers, meeting will be held in the central school building on Saturday, September 1st. All teachers of the corps are expected to be promptly in attendance.

—The Hon. Charles G. Williams is building a handsome residence at Watertown, Dakota, after the architectural style of that owned by Mr. L. L. Robinson, of this city.

—Mr. David Jeffries is building another tenement house on North Jackson street, on a lot owned by him near the railroad track. The building is a duplicate of the one just completed by him, on the next lot south.

—Rain commenced falling in this city about half past nine o'clock this forenoon, and continued falling gently until about half past twelve. The rain was welcomed by everyone, except those who happened to be on the river picnicking.

—Miss Hattie Dearborn has resigned her position in Trinity church choir. She has sung soprano in that church for four years, doing her work thoroughly well, and her resignation will prove a severe loss to the musical service of that church.

—This morning Marshal Hogan arrested a man named Simpson, of the fourth ward, for making a fool of himself in the streets—he was the same fellow mentioned elsewhere as appearing on the streets—with a mild attack of the jim jams.

—The school board held an adjourned meeting on Saturday evening. The only business transacted of public importance was the appointment of Miss Alice M. Bradford, of Appleton, as teacher in the second grammar department of the third district vice Miss Carrie Zeisinger promoted.

—Secretary W. T. Vankirk, of the Rock county agricultural society, is busy just now mailing the premium lists of the county fair. He desires all parties in the city who wish a copy, to call at his store and help themselves, as he will be unable to distribute through the post-office here.

—Mr. P. P. Strickler is making arrangements to visit several of the state fairs this season, for the purpose of showing up the merits of the "Dead lock" carrier, patented and manufactured by Messrs. Strickler & Miles, of this city. The carrier is a beauty and is as good as it looks.

—Sheriff Rueger and Deputy Sheriff Hawver, of Monroe, were in the city today, having in charge Thomas Layton, of the same place, who is insane. They are on their way to the state hospital for the insane at Madison. Mr. Layton suffered a severe sunstroke about three years ago, which is the immediate cause of his removal there.

—The money order department of the Janesville post office paid sixty-five money orders during the past week, amounting to $1,111.32; during the same time ninety-five orders were issued calling for the sum of $800.91, the fees being $9.54, making a total business for the week of $1,921.77, against the sum of $3,172.69 for the previous week.

—The remains of Mrs. W. V. Stevens, who died last Saturday at Montrose, Ill., were brought to this city on the 12:55 train from Chicago, for burial in Oak Hill cemetery. Mrs. Stevens lived in this city a number of years ago, her husband now being the agent of the railway company at Montrose, and was formerly a baggage master in this city.

—Yesterday, Mr. William Payne, who resides in the first ward, hitched his team to his carriage and left them standing a few minutes in his yard. The horses being bothered with flies, broke from the hitching post, and took a lively run through Mr. Payne's orchard, making a complete wreck of the carriage, which accounts for the badly broken vehicle left at Mr. Sexton's shop this morning for repairs.

—Last evening, about eleven o'clock, a wild man appeared on West Milwaukee street, without any clothing except his shirt and pants, making a good deal of noise, claiming that some one had entered his house and stole his wife. Street Commissioner Brown caught onto him and taking in the situation, concluded that the fellow had a pretty good attack of the "jim jams," and ordered him to his home. He finally cooled off, and disappeared from public view.

—The Sunday school of the First M. E. church will hold a picnic at Pope's springs, on Wednesday next, the 29th inst. The steamer, City of Newport, will make trips during the day as follows: Will leave its landing and touch at the west side landing near the tannery, at 9 a. m. and 1 p. m. prompt, and returning will leave the grove at 4 and 6 p. m.

Members of the school free, others 25 cents for round trip. All members and friends of the church and school are invited to join.

—Messrs. Lyon & Haskell, of Beloit, the contractors for putting down concrete sidewalks, have commenced putting down walks in front of five business stores on West Milwaukee street, owned by Messrs. E. C. Smith, Q. Barnes, M. E. Curtis, and E. H. Bennett's two stores. This will make a substantial improvement in those places, and on the whole the tenants, Messrs. Tarrant & Osgood, Wm. Hemming, Mark Collins and Q. Barnes, will be thankful. These concrete walks are coming in great favor with the people.

—The Rev. Jenk. L. Jones, of Chicago, preached to a very large audience at All Souls church yesterday morning. He took for his text, "All souls are mine," found in Ezekiel, 18:4. The best possible argument in favor of what may properly be called universal salvation, Mr. Jones built upon these words. It was not only a skillfully arranged sermon, but it showed a thorough study of the text in all its bearings upon human character, and had a scholarly touch about it which doubtless proved quite interesting and profitable to those of his hearers who were not believers in the liberal school of theology.

—Mr. James E. Yoe, an old settler, and well-known in this city, died at his home, two miles west of the city yesterday morning, in the sixty-first year of his age, and was buried in Oak Hill cemetery this forenoon. The deceased had been a resident of Rock county for thirty years. He was a very peculiar man in his life; never meddling with the affairs of his neighbors, and his peculiar habits in other ways of life, attracted considerable attention of his acquaintances. He was upright and honest in his dealings with the world at large—had many friends and no enemies. He leaves a wife and one daughter to mourn his loss.

—The funeral of the late A. J. Glass took place at his late residence on Pearl street, first ward, at three o'clock yesterday afternoon, and was largely attended by the Odd Fellows fraternity and sympathizing friends of the family. Rev. Dr. M. G. Hodge, of the Baptist church, conducted the funeral services at the house, and the choir of the Baptist church rendered the song service, at the conclusion of which the remains were taken in charge by the Odd Fellows, and conveyed to Oak Hill cemetery and buried in accordance with the ritual of that order. The bearers were Messrs. S. B. Kenyon, Charles Preller, William Ross, William Hodgdon, Thomas Mahon, and Fred Sonneborn. Mr. D. E. Fuller acted as marshal for the occasion.

—The school board held an adjourned meeting on Saturday evening. The only business transacted of public importance was the appointment of Miss Alice M. Bradford, of Appleton, as teacher in the second grammar department of the third district vice Miss Carrie Zeisinger promoted.

—Secretary W. T. Vankirk, of the Rock county agricultural society, is busy just now mailing the premium lists of the county fair. He desires all parties in the city who wish a copy, to call at his store and help themselves, as he will be unable to distribute through the post-office here.

day of August, 1883, before A. D. Wickham one of the Justices of the Peace for Rock county, Wis. upon view of the body of Mrs. Margaret Wood, widow aged 78 years, of the fourth ward, in the city of Janesville, Rock county, by jurors whose names are hereto subscribed duly sworn on behalf of the people of the State of Wisconsin, wherein and in what manner and by what means she came to her death; and that said Margaret Wood, on the 23rd day of August, 1883, between six and eight o'clock a. m., went to draw water from the cistern in rear of her house, on west side of Franklin street in said city, No. 67, accidentally and by mistake was suffocated and drowned in the water of said cistern, the said Margaret Wood then and there died, and so the said jurors upon their oaths do say that said Margaret Wood in the manner and by the means aforesaid, casually, accidentally and by mistake came to her death and not otherwise.

In testimony whereof the said Justice of the Peace and the jurors of this inquest have set their hands this 20th day of August, 1883.

A. D. WICKHAM, Justice of the Peace.

T. J. SALSMAN, Juror.

J. B. HYZER, Juror.

P. J. LEENAWAY, Juror.

N. WATSON, Juror.

D. RILEY, Juror.

It appears that Mrs. Wood accidentally fell into the cistern and was drowned. The mouth of the cistern, which is about six feet from the rear door of the house, is only twenty inches in diameter, and none of the brick were disturbed; the pulley used in drawing water was set on a bench at the side of the door; the box or curb over the cistern was loosened or moved back, and it is supposed that the deceased was looking into the cistern for some purpose, when she fell in head first. No other reason or supposition has been given.

She leaves a family of four children, two daughters and one son, residing in this city, and one daughter, Mrs. James Lee, residing in Chicago.

The deceased had lived in this city upwards of twenty years, residing on South Franklin street the past fifteen years. She was a hard working, industrious woman, and highly respected by her neighbors. Her husband passed to the other side of the dark river about one year ago. The funeral will be held in St. Patrick's church to-morrow morning, at nine o'clock.

Five dozen Jerseys to-day at $2.50, at Arcade Reid's.

Tony Denier Organization.

The Chicago Journal of Saturday says: The members of the Tony Denier Organization will leave the city Monday morning for Janesville, Wis., where they commenced their sixteenth annual tour on September 1. The company plays in Milwaukee, Wis., week of September 3, during the exhibition, at Denier's Academy of Music. Mr. Denier will accompany his company to direct rehearsals.

Mr. Denier and his company arrived in the city this afternoon, and took quarters at the Myers house. He pays quite a compliment to Janesville by selecting this city as the place where he shall organize his great pantomime company. It is the largest and the best organization of the kind in the United States. The first performance will be given at the opera house next Saturday evening, when the event will draw one of the largest audiences of the year.

The following persons appear as members of the troupe:—Tony Denier, sole proprietor; George S. Sidney, manager; Charles W. Ravel, the acting clown; George D. Melville, the tumbling clown; Wally Leonard, Mlle. Leonie Fontaine, Rene Leonard, G. H. Lorbey, F. E. Lorbey, Mlle. Elbe, A. W. Wilson, Miss Lee Errol, M. G. Pettigall, Miss Carrie Frazier, Prof. A. L. Gleason, Miss Myrtle Russell, John Carrigan, Tullman Brothers, Miss Pat Morimer, Louis E. Benz, Edward Trill, Prof. Frederick E. Butters, L. P. Wilbur, L. B. Smith, W. Davies, Geo. E. Jennings, Edward Rogers, and Wm. O. Arthur.

A low condition of health is common with many who allow themselves to worry. Mental anguish causes bodily ruin. Nervous debility, loss of sleep, loss of appetite, loss of vitality, loss of energy, loss of power, loss of strength, loss of health, loss of life, are among the list. A sure remedy for relieving all mental and physical distress is Brown's Iron Bitters. It at once strengthens every part of the body making work a pleasure and care unknown.

Mr. Samuel Lindow, Franklin, Wis., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters has cured me of a very severe attack of neuralgia."

Dr. J. H. Myers, Fairfield, Iowa, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the best iron preparation I have ever known in my 30 years of practice."

The baby's "second summer" and its teething troubles, made pleasant by Brown's Teething Cordial.

Personal.

—Captain S. J. M. Putnam, steward of the Mendota insane asylum, spent Sunday in this city.

—Mrs. C. E. Mastman, of Kaukauna, Illinois, is in the city, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cunningham, Glen street, second ward.

—Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Sonneborn, who have been in the city visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sonneborn, for a few days, left for their home in New York city this morning.

—Mr. Lin Kueh who has been living in Chicago for some time, is in the city on a brief visit. He goes to Des Moines, Iowa, where he will enter the employ of a large drug wholesale house.

—Mrs. F. F. Stevens and Mrs. H. W. Collins will start for San Francisco to-morrow taking the southern route. They will visit some time in that city, and will also make a trip to the Yosemite, and possibly to Salt Lake City. They expect to be absent six or seven weeks.

—Mr. W. G. Wheelock left for South Bend, Indiana, this morning, where he will meet his son Charles and together they will visit New York and Boston, to search the markets for novelties, job lots and specialties for their two crockery stores in South Bend and Janesville. While in Boston they will visit the two exhibitions that open in that city the 3d and 5th of September.

Why we Dozen.

True, you are in a miserable condition—you are weak, pale and nervous. You cannot sleep at night, nor enjoy your waking hours; yet why lose heart? Get at the drugists a bottle of Burdock Blood Purifier. They will restore you to health and peace of mind.

Sold by Palmer & Stevens and Sherer & Co.

Houseshold Wares.—DeLand's Soda and Saleratus have made their way to nearly every household in the land; and wherever the masses prefer good materials to bad, they keep possession. They are the best in the market.

Cosiveness in the origin of many diseases. Baxter's Bitters cures cosiveness. Price 25 cents. Sold by Stearns & Baker.

The Coming of "Karl."

On Wednesday evening Charles A. Gardner, the widely-known German dialect comedian, will give a performance at Myers opera house. This event will be of special interest to the theatre-goers of Janesville. Gardner can raise more laughter to the minute than any dialect comedian we have in this country. He will be supported by Miss Patti Rosa. She is a splendid singer, and with all a fine actor. The whole company is good, and the orchestra, which the Karl company takes with them is one of the best on the road.

Reserved seats are now on sale at Prentice & Evenson's. The scale of prices will be 25, 50, and 75 cents.

Our readers will find all the medicines advertised in the paper at Prentice & Evenson's drug store, opposite the postoffice. They keep all the principal patent medicines in the market, and undoubtedly have the largest stock in the city.

A Clergyman's Testimony.

W. E. Gifford, pastor M. E. church Bothwell, Ont., says for two years a sufferer from dyspepsia in its worst form, until as he states "life became an actual burden." Three bottles of Burdock Blood Purifier cured him, and he tells us in a recent letter that he considers it the best family medicine now before the country for dyspepsia and liver complaint.
